Prairie Voices

Young Voices of Colorado invites you and your 4th-6th grade singers to participate in the 9th annual PrairieVoices

Conducted by Young Voices of Colorado directors, Jena Dickey and Kimean Wibbenmeyer, PrairieVoices is a special opportunity for your students to sing in a large treble choir with other young people who share their high level of talent and love of singing. Please choose your best and most interested singers who have unchanged treble voices and are able to match pitch.

PrairieVoices was created for East Adams and Arapahoe County schools, but singers from all schools are welcome to attend. Jenny Authier from Strasburg Elementary School is host for this event.
